The Angel Gabriel

On a dark and mysterious night
it was Mary, a maiden so gentle and kind,
who was struck by the strangest of sights.
An angel appearing before her declared;
don’t be scared! Don’t be scared!
I am the Angel Gabriel!
Sent down from heaven above.
I bring joy and happy news
from God – His message of love.
So don’t be afraid! I tell of a day
when Jesus your child shall be born:
the Saviour in a manger!
And He shall be known for all time
as the Saviour divine!
(The Saviour divine, Saviour divine, ooh)
Yes, the Saviour divine!
(The Saviour divine, Saviour divine, ooh)

“What it pleases my God I shall be!”
Said Mary to Gabriel, down on her knees.
No more troubled in thought or in deed,
Most favoured of ladies,
what God has decreed
It shall be! It shall be!
I am the Angel Gabriel!
Sent down from heaven above.
I bring joy and happy news
from God – His message of love.
So don’t be afraid! I tell of a day
when Jesus your child shall be born:
the Saviour in a manger!
And He shall be known for all time
as the Saviour divine!
(The Saviour divine, Saviour divine, ooh)
Yes, the Saviour divine!
(The Saviour divine, Saviour divine, ooh)
